Eating on Campus

- Student Centre (Áras na Mac Leinn) – just across campus next to the chapel. Has a bar, which serves hot meals, and two cafes which serve soup and freshly made sandwiches
- Java City – O’Rahilly Building (across the quadrangle from the conference rooms). Has specialty teas and coffees, and cakes, pastries and sandwiches.
- The Glucksman Gallery Cafe – On the main thoroughfare that runs down to Western Road – cafe is in the basement of the gallery. Serves three course meals and soups.
- Coffee Station – At the main college gates, Western Road. A huge selection of wraps, baguettes, quiches, paninos and soups.
- The Main Restaurant – Situated next to the Library on Campus. Serves hot meals and salads.

Supermarkets and Stores

- There are two small shops on campus; one in the Student Centre and one next to the main restaurant. The shops stock snacks, sandwiches, drinks and cigarettes, and some toiletries and cosmetics. There is a John Smith's Bookstore, also located in the Student Centre.

- There is a stationery store, also in the Student Centre, which carries most of the daily Irish and UK newspapers, and some international press. The stationery store also has gifts.
- There is a larger supermarket located on Bandon Road, just a five minute walk from Campus.
- The Glucksman Gallery also has a gift store and bookshop.
- Banks: There is a branch of the Bank of Ireland in the Student Centre.
